SERBIANS MAKE HEROIC DEFENSE

Are Inflicting Heavy Losses on Austro-Germans.

ASKS FOR REINFORCEMENTS

Field Marshal von Mackensen is leaving the more serious work of invading the Eastern and Southern Part of Serbia to the Bulgarians, who have had more experience in Mountain Warfare.

London, Nov. 2.—From all sides the Germans, Austrians and Bulgarians are slowly closing in on the Serbian armies, the position of which grows graver daily. They are fighting fiercely, however, to save their country and have inflicted such losses on Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces that he has been compelled to send for reinforcements and leave the more serious work of invading the eastern and southern part of the country to the Bulgarians, who have had more experience in mountain warfare such as the Serbians are waging.

From the junction of the Danube and Timok rivers, in the northeast, to Uspuk, in the south, the Bulgarians are moving westward, driving the Serbians out of the towns and into the mountains, but from Uspuk southward they have been checked, as the Serbians in that territory have been reinforced by the French and British with modern guns and with gunners who gained valuable experience in France and Gallipoli.

Beyond the forces landed at Saloniki, which German estimates place at 70,000 men, there is no news of further assistance being sent by the allies to Serbia.

Roumanians Are Restless.

Russian transports have been reported off Varna, but the report lacks confirmation. There is, however, evidence in dispatches from Bucharest that the people of Roumania at least desire intervention and that pressure is being brought on the king and cabinet to induce them to join the allies and permit a Russian force to pass through Roumanian territory to attack Bulgaria from the east. Greece continues her friendly neutrality.

The Germans, having failed in two months of almost incessant attacks to reach Riga and Dvinsk by various routes, are now trying along the railway which skirts the shores of the Gulf of Riga from Tukum and have, according to their reports, reached a point west of Schlok. This is a very slight advance and much low ground over which it is difficult to move lies between them and their objective.

Russians on the Offensive.

In the Dvinsk sector, both to the west and southwest of the city, the Russians have begun an offensive, aptly in anticipation of renewed attacks by the Germans, and they are also on the move in the lake district east of the Dvinsk-Vilna railway and in Volhynia and Galicia. The result of these various battles has not been disclosed, if, indeed, they are concluded. Those at the southern end of the line are doubtless designed to prevent the Germans and Austrians from sending reinforcements to Serbia.

In France the battle for the Butte de Tahure, which the Germans recaptured from the French, is still in progress without changing the positions of the two armies. There has been some fighting at other points in the west.

What the attacks on this front have cost is shown by a report issued by Field Marshal Sir John French. He says that the published lists of the German casualty disclose that seven German battalions which took part in the Loos fighting—presumably a German counter attack—lost 80 per cent of their strength.

SON SLAIN WHILE MOURNING MOTHER

Jealousy Results in Tragedy on Minnesota Farm.

Winona, Minn., Nov. 2.—Two members of the family of James E. Brewster, a farmer living two and a half miles south of Spring Grove, are dead. Mrs. Brewster died after a lingering illness and Robert Brewster, thirty years old, was murdered in the kitchen of the home in the midst of the mourners.

The murder was a result of jealousy over a girl, Irene King, who works at the Brewster home.

While young Brewster was in the kitchen with Miss King, Dennis Smith, a Brewster farm hand, who had been paying attention to the girl, entered, carrying a .32-caliber pistol.

Without warning he began to shoot. The first bullet struck Brewster in the jaw. The girl fled, but the infuriated lover fired at her. The shot went wide and she escaped.

A second shot pierced Brewster's heart and he fell dead.

Smith then fled from the house, taking with him the revolver. The elder Mr. Brewster, who was close by when the shooting took place, attempted to follow the slayer, but Smith jumped into a buggy and drove away.

Smith, who was twenty-one years old, has lived in the vicinity for some time.

SUGAR PLANTERS PROSPER

Hawaiians Distribute $700,000 in Bonuses to Laborers.

Honolulu, Nov. 2.—Hawaiian sugar planters, it was made known, will distribute this season to their plantation laborers bonuses totaling $700,000.

The planters, as a result of the high prices obtained for their sugar because of the European war, have had a remarkably prosperous year.

Will Protest Seizure.

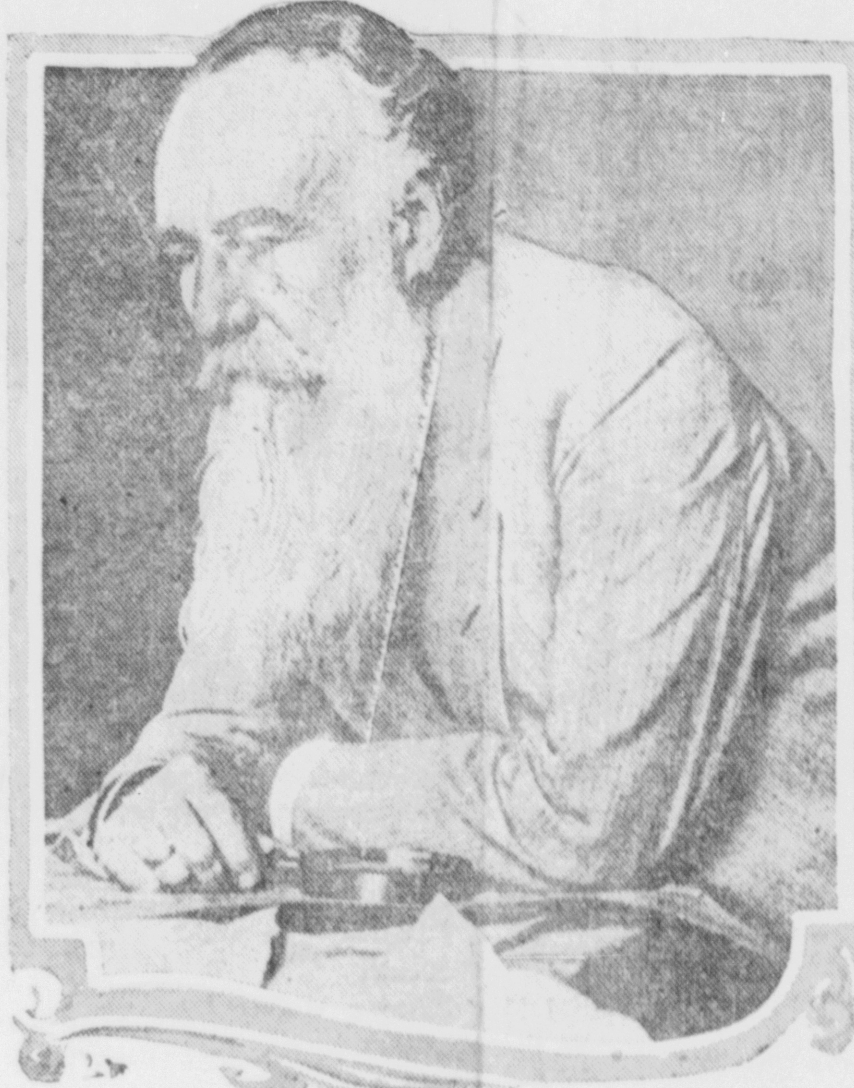

Washington, Nov. 2.—Officials here informally indicated their displeasure at the action of Great Britain in seizing the American ship Hocking because of the alleged invalidity in its transfer of registry. It is considered likely that a protest will be transmitted to the British foreign office within a few days.

NEGRO DIPLOMAT IS DEAD

J. Milton Turner Succumbs to Injuries Received.

St. Louis, Nov. 2.—J. Milton Turner, negro, former United States minister to Liberia, died at Ardmore, Okla. Mr. Turner lived in St. Louis, but he was injured in the explosion of a tank car at Ardmore a month ago. He was the first negro to enter the American diplomatic service, having been appointed minister to Liberia by President Grant in 1870.

Serbia's Grand Old Man Makes Final Plea to Allies to Save His Country

Premier Pashich

This photograph shows the grand old man of Serbia, Premier Pashich, looking on maps of the progress of the war about two weeks before he made this last plea to the allies to send troops to save his country from the Austrians, Germans, and Bulgarians.

"Serbia is making superhuman efforts to defend her existence in response to the advice and desire of her great allies. For this she is condemned to death by the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians. For twenty days our common enemy has tried to annihilate us.

"In spite of the heroism of our soldiers our resistance cannot be expected to be maintained indefinitely. We beg of you and the many friends of Serbia in England to do everything you can to insure your troops reaching us as soon as possible, that they may help our army, and that we may defend together the common cause which is now so gravely menaced."

The plea was sent to London and it was published on the day Lord Lansdowne admitted in the House of Lords that so far Great Britain had sent only 13,000 troops to Salonika to help the Serbs.

LATEST WAR NEWS

Villa's Army Defeated Leave 400 Dead

(By United Press)

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 2.—The defeated Villalita army retired eastward from Agua Prieta late today leaving 400 dead and wounded on the battlefield. Villa's forces seemed to be disintegrating, many deserting to go in search of food. Repeated assaults since early morning failed, and General Calles' entanglements proved impregnable, the tired and hungry Villalistas finally fleeing after a last desperate attack. Two thousand Yaqui Indians arrived too late to reinforce Villa. Wounded Villa soldiers declared the army had had no food for two days. Many of the Agua Prieta buildings were damaged.

SMALL BUT TROUBLESOME

(By United Press)

Vienna, Nov. 2.—In a series of bloody fighting in the region 35 to 40 miles above the mouth of the Morava river the Germans are clearing the country of the scattering bands of Serbs which escaped earlier annihilation in the Teutonic sweep through Serbia. The bands are insufficiently strong to form resistance but have caused trouble by guerrilla fighting.

BULGARS CAPTURE MONASTIR

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 2.—Fears are expressed in newspaper dispatches that the Bulgarians have captured Monastir, Serbia.

Monastir, the most important Serbian town seventy miles from the nearest Bulgarian frontier, is connected by railroad with Salonika. The capture indicates that the Bulgarians have thrown a cordon across the country.

Vienna, Nov. 2.—An official statement says that after two weeks' battle, "We won against the Italians attacking the Isonzo front."

Many Casualties Are Record of the Battle

(By United Press)

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Nine Hebrews and four soldiers were wounded in Douglas as a result of a rain of bullets fired by Villalistas attacking Agua Prieta across the border. Today's engagement opened at daylight with heavy artillery preparation by Villalistas. Casualties on both sides are believed to have been heavy as a result of yesterday's fighting. Villa snipers crossed to the American side firing at Carranza gunners. No effort was made by the United States troops to carry out the threat made to fire on either faction allowing soldiers to fire across the border into Douglas. Refugees are continuing to flock from the besieged city into Douglas hotel and internment camps. It is believed General Calles' defending forces number 7,000 against Villa's 15,000.

ENGLAND ASKED TO EXPLAIN

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 2.—England has been asked by the United States to explain the seizure of the American steamer Hocking at Halifax. Secretary Lansing wired Ambassador Page in London asking him to secure the British explanation. It is officially stated that a vigorous protest will be sent. Prompt action is intended to policy against the new British policy of questioning the validity of transfers to the American flag.

RUSSIANS INVADE BULGARIA

Landing Said to Have Been Effected at Varna.

London, Nov. 2.—A dispatch from the Times from Bucharest says:

"It is reported in naval quarters here that Russian troops were landed at Varna in Bulgaria, on the Black sea, Friday."

The bombardment of Varna did much damage, especially in the Armenian and Greek quarters of the town, according to Bucharest dispatches to the London morning papers. The military club, marine arsenal, national bank and English cotton factory were damaged or destroyed, while the barracks outside the town and the naval docks were damaged.

King Ferdinand's chateau at Ruxinograd had one wing destroyed and the ancient monastery in the grounds, where the king and queen reside in preference to the palace, was also demolished. It is said that the majority of the troops at Varna are Turkish, under command of German officers.

CONSCRIPTION MAY NOT BE NECESSARY.

London, Nov. 2.—Horatio W. Bottomley, member of parliament for the southern division of Hackney, in a lecture at Brighton, claimed that he had the authority of the Earl of Derby, director of recruiting, for saying that whatever the earl had thought before he now was convinced that the voluntary system of recruiting would be saved.

HORSE DRAGS HIM TO DEATH

Young Farmer Commits Suicide in Sensational Way.

Aberdeen, S. D., Nov. 2.—When a frightened horse dashed into the barn of the Philip Leidholt farm, near Bodwie, with the body of Leidholt Reede, a young farmer who had been working the place, dangling behind it at the end of a rope, it revealed the most unusual suicide in this part of the state. Reede, a coroner's jury has found, forced the horse to drag him to death.

An inquest conducted at Ipswich brought out that Reede had gone to the field to do some plowing. Having finished it he apparently drove the team a short distance from the field and unfasted the singletree to which one of the horses was hitched.

He tied a three-foot piece of rope about his neck and fastened the other end to the singletree. He then whipped the horse until it ran.

The animal made for the barn, a mile and a half away. Across a field and along a road it dashed with the body of the man dangling behind it.

A short time after the horse reached the barn Leidholt found it with its gruesome burden in its stall. He notified the authorities.

In 1899 Mr. Ridder became a stockholder in the Daily Staats Zeitung and was elected treasurer and manager. Under his direction that paper assumed a leading position in its field. He became president of the corporation in 1907 and at the time of his death he was publisher of influential morning and afternoon papers in German.

Although Mr. Ridder championed Germany's cause in the present war he was always a loyal American.

Paris, Nov. 2.—"It appears from news from a German source received here," says the Havas correspondent at Geneva, telegraphing Monday evening, "that the Russians have taken the offensive on the Niemen and Upper Szozara rivers, as well as at Dvinsk and on the Styr and Strpa rivers and with considerable success in the latter sections."

HERMAN RIDDER DIES SUDDENLY

Editor and Publisher a Victim of Kidney Trouble.

ILL FOR ABOUT TEN MONTHS

Deceased Was One of the Most Conspicuous Figures in the Newspaper Business and Was Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee.

New York, Nov. 2.—Herman Ridder, treasurer of the Democratic national committee and owner and editor of the New York Staats Zeitung, died suddenly at his home in this city.

The cause of Mr. Ridder's death was kidney trouble in an acute form. He had been ill about ten months and for two weeks past his condition has been critical. He was in his sixty-fifth year.

Members of his family were summoned to the bedside when it was seen that he could last but little longer and were with him when he died.

Among a large number of prominent German-American citizens of the United States, Herman Ridder was one of the most conspicuous figures in the newspaper publishing business and in politics. His associates in the publishing business had honored him at one time with the presidency of the American Newspaper Publishers' association.

In politics he was such a factor that he was talked of at the national Democratic convention in Denver, in 1908, as a possible nominee for vice president on the ticket with Bryan, whom, however, Mr. Ridder opposed at that time. He also was discussed later as a likely selection for ambassador to Germany.

Following the nomination of Bryan at the 1908 convention, after former Governor Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma had resigned as treasurer of the national Democratic committee, because of his affiliation with Standard Oil interests, Mr. Ridder was chosen as treasurer and in his own name and those of his brothers he contributed $37,000, the largest single contribution to the Bryan campaign.

New Yorker by Birth.

Mr. Ridder was one of the so called self-made men and a New Yorker from birth until his death. The story is told of a dinner which he gave to twenty-five New York men at the time Colonel Clowry first established himself in New York to take charge of the Western Union Telegraph company.

A poll of birthplaces was taken at the table just for fun and the German editor proved to be the only born New Yorker present.

He was born March 5, 1851. His German parents were not far removed from poverty—so near it that young Ridder began earning his own living when eleven years old as an errand boy in a hat store. By stages he served in a Wall street broker's office, as employee of the fire insurance company and then as an insurance agent.

At eighteen he had become interested in politics and at that early age, before he cast his first vote, he stumped the whole lower East Side of New York city and won for his favorite a nomination for district judge, later electing his man.

He entered the newspaper business when he was twenty-seven years old, by establishing the first Roman Catholic newspaper in New York city in German, and soon afterward started the Catholic News in English, which in a short time became recognized as a leading Catholic paper of the country.

In 1899 Mr. Ridder became a stockholder in the Daily Staats Zeitung and was elected treasurer and manager. Under his direction that paper assumed a leading position in its field. He became president of the corporation in 1907 and at the time of his death he was publisher of influential morning and afternoon papers in German.

Although Mr. Ridder championed Germany's cause in the present war he was always a loyal American.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Opened This Morning With Judge W. S. McClenahan Presiding. Grand Jury is Charged

A. J. FORSYTH IS THE FOREMAN

Judge W. A. Fleming in Behalf of Lawyer Friend. Presents Judge Holland Portrait

District court opened in Brainerd with Judge W. S. McClenahan presiding. It is now thought probable that the judge will reside to the end of the term in Brainerd and that Judge B. F. Wright will open court in Walker.

The grand jury was charged and Judge McClenahan appointed A. J. Forsyth its foreman. The grand jury selected Henry I. Cohen as its clerk.

A preliminary call of the calendar was held and shortly after that Judge W. A. Fleming addressed the court and in behalf of lawyer friends of the late Judge Geo. W. Holland, presented the portrait of the judge painted by Col. Freeman Thorp of Hubert.

Resolutions were read and adopted by the county commissioners accepting the painting in behalf of Crow Wing county and Judge McClenahan ordered all spread on the records. The picture is one of the best examples of Col. Thorp's art and is especially valuable as the colonel was a great friend of Judge Holland.

Special insurance was ordered placed on the picture. It was hung on the wall back of the judge's station.

NOTED SPEAKERS COMING

Capt. Charles Campbell, Navigation Expert, at Chamber of Commerce Wednesday

Word has just been received from Capt. Chas. Campbell of Minneapolis, that he will speak before the members of the Chamber of Commerce on the evening of Wednesday, November 3rd.

Capt. Campbell is a man of wide experience in inland navigation. It was through his efforts that Minneapolis succeeded in having the high dam built by the government near Minnehaha Falls, while with his aid a company has been formed to operate a line of barges between New Orleans and the Twin Cities. He is an interesting speaker and one convincing in his talk.

On the evening of November 15th, Chas. Frederick Wellers, associate secretary of Playgrounds and Recreation Association of America will speak at the club rooms on the "Recreation Movement," using stereopticon views to illustrate his talk. Mr. Wellers started as a newsboy on the streets of Chicago then working as a laboring man in the Chicago Stock yards, doing chores to pay his way through high school and the University of Michigan. He began his work in organized philanthropy in Chicago in 1906. He opened the first playground in Washington, D. C., in his back yard.

Mr. Wellers' description of the needs the people and the movement which is nation-wide to unite them in fraternal endeavor to effect municipal betterment and social progress, never fails to inspire and enlist co-operation. Every man and woman in the city should not fail to hear Mr. Wellers. Everybody is invited.

The facts and figures which Capt. Chas. Campbell of Minneapolis will present in his talk tomorrow evening at the Chamber of Commerce club rooms, will show conclusively another of the great possibilities that Brainerd can look forward to in the way of future development. Several years ago citizens of Minneapolis frowned upon such a plan believing that the time had not yet arrived for development of its water transportation facilities. Brainerd is likewise overlooking one of the many opportunities which needs such a man as Capt. Campbell to open up a vista to great development possibilities.

Capt. Campbell's appearance before the Civic & Commerce Association of Minneapolis several years ago, when he outlined what could be done with the Mississippi river, was indeed a revelation and business men in all walks of life responded in large measures until today they have organized a company and are constructing a large line for the transportation of freight which will lower transportation rates at least one-third.

The lifelong work of the speaker in navigation matters has given him a vision that is far reaching, while his principles are practical as well as profitable. His talk tomorrow evening will be illustrated with stereopticon views and aside from its commercial value, will be interesting and educational. Many ladies have expressed a desire to be present and it is hoped that a large representation of Brainerd men and women will be present to hear him.

Captain Campbell was for a number of years a state representative in the New York legislature, while for several seasons he was stationed at Washington, D. C., in the promotion of national inland waterway projects.

Indian Lid at Aitkin

Although Aitkin is a "dry" town and has been for some time the Indian lid has been clamped on there and the Independent-Age in commenting on the same says:

From the Northern Pacific depot, Mr. Brandt confiscated eight packages and a case of beer, besides two packages taken off the train on which he arrived. At the Soo he secured a five gallon keg of alcohol and a case of beer. They were all destroyed, and orders given that hereafter any such shipments were to be immediately returned to the senders.

At the drug stores he ordered all whiskey and alcohol returned at once to the shippers, except three gallons, which each drug firm was allowed to retain. In future all drug stores will be allowed to retain three gallons only on a permit from the war department.

But They Can.

WOMAN'S REALM

AN ORIGINAL HALLOWEEN PARTY

Given at Riverview, Gull Lake, by Mrs. F. L. Larson and Mrs. John Lee

NOVEL GAMES ARE PLAYED

Mrs. Larson was Very Becomingly Attired in Costume of One of the Swedish Provinces

A very enjoyable Halloween party was given at Riverview, the residence of F. L. Larson, on Gull Lake, by Mrs. Larson and Mrs. John Lee. There were thirty guests present, and grown folks and children entered into the sports of the evening with great hilarity.

Ring on the string, digging in the yard for buried treasure, constructing birds and animals from vegetables and toothpicks, fortune telling, spin the platter, animal games, and potato races were the most important games.

Arden White's wood duck, made of a carrot, onion and toothpicks, drew the blue ribbon. When the hunt for buried treasure was announced, each guest was given a numbered slip and instructed to dig in a sand pile in the yard, and each was rewarded with a trinket of some kind. At ten o'clock refreshments, consisting of coffee, witches cake, apples and pop corn were served. Miss Ruth White drawing the prize of a fancy ring from the witch's cake.

Mrs. Larson was very becomingly dressed in a costume of one of the Swedish provinces and made a charming hostess. All went home at twelve o'clock, having spent a delightful evening.

Entertainment Successful

The spook program given last evening in the social rooms of the Methodist church by the young people of the Epworth League was a very enjoyable occasion. A troop of some thirty ghosts were in charge who welcomed the guests, ushered them to their seats and later on put on a unique program, consisting of old fashioned melodies, humorous spook recitations and solos and various other numbers of a mysterious character, of which Hamlet's father's ghost in Shakespearean dialect was not the least. The Old Witch did her part admirably and the audience enjoyed watching the weird spirits float about. Immediately following the program refreshments were served and a time of general jollification engaged all those present.

DETROIT VOTES TODAY

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 2—Detroit's 20-year battle for municipal ownership of her street railway system reached its climax today in the vote on the railway commission's plan for buying the city lines. Acquisitions by the municipality at a price to be fixed later by six circuit judges was the feature of the plan. Public opinion seems to be divided on the advisability of taking over the car lines.

Three States Votes on Suffrage Today

(By United Press Staff Cor.)

OPINIONS OF FOUR MEN ON GRANTING THE VOTE TO WOMEN

Abraham Lincoln—I go for all sharing the privileges of the government who assist in bearing the burdens, by no means excluding women.
Woodrow Wilson—I believe the time has come to extend the privilege and responsibility of the vote to the women.
Theodore Roosevelt—It is the right of woman to have the ballot. It is the duty of man to give it and we all need the woman's help as we try to solve the many and terrible problems set before us.
John Mitchell—It's a sure thing that any adult who is amenable to the laws should have a voice in the making of the laws.

New York, Nov. 2—Today the men of New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts will say by ballot whether their women shall be given the vote.

A heavy vote in New York and Massachusetts and a light vote in Pennsylvania have been forecast. Whirlwind finish campaigns ended last night. Early this morning suffragists were at every polling place to buttonhole the men as they arrived and make their final plea for a favorable decision.

The anti's also were represented generally, but their campaign has taken more the form of billboard, street car and handbill statements than personal propaganda work.

Should Pennsylvania vote for suffrage, the "Justice Bell," duplicate of the Liberty Bell, which has been carried about the state for months with its shackled clapper prominently displayed, will be rung in Philadelphia. If suffrage is defeated, it

The Little Falls Transcript still wages war on the Ben Davis apple and says that there will be no protest heard from the people to the statement that the apple wrecked the garden of Eden provided it was of that brand.

Judge C. W. Stanton for governor and Gov. Hammond for United States senator is the talk among Bemidji democrats, according to the Pioneer of that city. Judge Stanton is called upon to deny more rumors regarding his candidacy for office than any other democrat in Northern Minnesota.

Frank Day wants to be a delegate-at-large from Minnesota to the Democratic national convention, and the Duluth News-Tribune thinks that if the democrats of this state are not absolutely machine-controlled they should give him this thankless recognition without his having to make a campaign for it. Friend Day has never quite received the recognition he desired for being a democrat and there is probably some question whether he will be rewarded this time—no matter how much he deserves it.

The Little Falls Transcript says that C. B. Buckman, who a short time ago announced his candidacy for congress from this district, filed for the office Saturday morning. The local man had received so much encouragement since his announcement was made that he decided to file early and from this time on he will conduct a strenuous campaign. He is daily receiving letters from all over the district in which the writers very emphatically declare themselves for him and his chances to land in the congressional seat never looked brighter than they do at this time.

On August 1 of last year the call for Swiss mobilization was issued and to many the method used by Switzerland in training her boys will be interesting. Two days after this order was issued the nation's army was ready—an army of about 300,000 men. This efficiency was due to the Swiss system of universal military training, says the Kansas City Star. At the age of eight years, every Swiss schoolboy begins a course of physical training in the school. This training is under the supervision of the federal war department. At the same time the school boy is given instruction in a cadet corps, in which he has rifle practice. From 16 to 20 every boy gets weekly training under the direction of army officers. When he is 20 years old he serves for 77 days in a school for recruits, and after that serves a fortnight each year until he is 28. For the next four years he belongs to the first line, although he need not report for service. From 32 to 42 he belongs to the second line. Members of this line are inspected annually and are called to the colors for a week every other year. Rifle contests are held to keep up the interest and efficiency of the men. By means of this system Switzerland has been able to present a formidable enough front to insure the respecting of her neutrality without resorting to the extreme military system of the great nations of Europe.

"THE EDITOR ARRESTED!"

A. H. Carlisle of the Cuyuna Range Miner has a Bad Quarter of an Hour, Then a Good Feed

Cuyuna Range Miner—Last Sunday evening about 6 o'clock, while sitting in our office reading, we felt a light tap upon our shoulder, and, turning quickly around, there stood Police Officer Edward Olson, blue coat, brass buttons, club and all, looking down on us with a twinkle in his eye. After we had taken a lead pencil and forced our heart down out of our throat, and taking in a good breath, we excitedly asked him what the wherefore was and why. "You'll find out pretty soon," said the officer, and continued: "You get your cap and coat and come along with me." Shadows of bolted doors and iron bars flitted through our mind, as we knew it would be impossible to get a hearing before morning. Our mind ran swiftly back over the past week, and to save our life we could not think of one criminal act of ours during that period.

In company with the officer, we stepped out upon the sidewalk, and we were somewhat surprised to note that he started out in an opposite direction from the Hotel de Olson. We walked slowly down the street and turned south on Minnesota Ave., until we came to the residence of Mr. Olson. We were ushered into a large dining room, where we also found Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson—and then we began to "tumble." Mr. and Mrs. Olson had prepared a big duck dinner—and plenty of it, too.

The jail scene vanished from our vision as quickly as it came, when we found ourselves eating duck and other good things. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by all, after which we returned to our home with a light heart and a full stomach.

Two Blocks Wet, Rest of City Dry

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 2—Just two blocks of this city are dry, the rest are wet. That's the decision of legal lights today, in the interpretation of the Indian treaty of 1855, providing for dryness of certain sections of Minnesota, and territory "within one day's walking distance of it."

DEMOCRACY OF RUSSIA SUFFERS SERIOUS BLOW

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

Another serious blow has been suffered by the democracy of Russia through the decision of the czar to revive the post of chancellor of the empire and appoint Premier Goremykin to that absolutist position.

The chancellorship is an unusual office in Russia. It has been filled only 12 times in 200 years, and has been in abeyance throughout the past generation. Its revival is unquestionably due to the czar's desire to increase the power and prestige of M. Goremykin and thus emphasize the approval of reactionary government. Since the czar dissolved the duma, there have been frequent riots throughout Russia. The people have felt that the czar has been attempting to fix his absolutism more firmly on the country, and national strikes have been but narrowly averted.

The czar, however, has been able to prevent a revolutionary outbreak and the courage of the autocracy seemingly has increased.

The radicals of the duma threatened to follow the example of the leaders of the French revolution and summon an official duma when the legislature was prorogued, but their spirit has failed them. Resolutions of protest and fiery orations have been the limits of their activities.

The lack of more serious obstruction than street rioting to the czar's antidemocratic activities has coincided with the halt of the Teutonic offensive in Russia. The czar has unquestionably taken much credit for the new military situation in the empire. The Austro-German check has not been due to positive virtues among the Russians, but to the requirements of the Serbian campaign and to the fact that all the reasonable Teutonic objectives had been won along the eastern front when the czar made himself commander-in-chief of his armies.

Nevertheless, the czar has gained local prestige because the invaders have made no further important advance since his assumption of command. Taking advantage of the moment, therefore, his majesty apparently has resolved to prepare precautionary measures against any later outbreak of democracy among his subjects. M. Goremykin, the most reactionary premier Russia has had in many years, is to have his powers largely increased and is to marshal all the standpoint forces to protect the czar from the duma. For the rest of the war, the duma's influence is to be killed.

Soldiers Graves are Doomed to Darkness

BY ALICE ROHE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Rome, Nov. 2—Many a poor woman who has denied herself necessities of life for months that her pitiful sons might buy candles for the soldier dead in the great cemetery at Verano at San Lorenzo; and strangers who traveled thousands of miles to see the flaming torches in this famous City of the Dead on All Souls Day, found posted the government's ultimatum dooming the graves of darkness on this day, for the first time in centuries.

Church and sepulchre are not sacred from Teuton shells; and Austrian aeroplanes would find the flickering tribute to departed souls a tempting beacon for their bombs. Only the dimmest of small blue lights are permitted, and but few of these.

Rich and poor mingled in the slow caravan which made the road to San Lorenzo a garland of blooms—blooms to fall upon the new-turned earth of a very great many new graves. The graves of the Garibaldi, who fell in the battle of the Argonne were buried in flowers.

On All Souls Day neither age nor sickness can keep the poor from the humble graves. The road to Verano is filled with tragic pictures as old and young plod pathetically to the great burying ground, carrying their few flowers.

When rich and poor have lighted their own graves they throw their offering of oil into the great bronze urns of the Ossario, where lie buried in common ground, the poor.

Men and women, bent and old, add a pathetic bit to the leaping flames, or throw a tiny waxen candle into the burning mass—for beneath the nondescript slabs lie their loved ones.

There is no more impressive, no sadder sight in all Rome than this view from the high point of the Pinocchio, when, at sunset, dusk has crept into those shadowed walks and the thousand lights on the graves of the dead gleam forth; when down avenues of cypresses one sees leaping toward heaven the great flames from the huge urn beneath a wooden cross where the people throw their offerings with a prayer for the souls in purgatory.

GRIT AND PEP

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 2—The halcyon days when the "Big Three" in the eastern collegiate world—Harvard, Yale and Princeton—used to pick on their smaller brethren during the football season, seem fast slipping away. The well known "woim" has completed a somersault.

Hardly a season passes now that some little college with a handful of students and a million dollars worth of grit and pep doesn't hand either Yale, Harvard or Princeton a swift kick in the slats on the gridiron.

This year, eleven huskies from down Virginia way turned the trick on Yale. Last year, little Washington and Jefferson did it, the year before that Colgate smothered the Blue. And going still further back, it is found that the Army, Brown and Lafayette all have taken a whack at the Big Ones in the last half dozen years.

This tends to revive that somewhat moss-covered question of whether the trend of the times isn't toward the smaller schools. Athletically, it seems to be in schools such as Harvard, Princeton or Yale there are far more fellows of athletic ability in the student body of four or five thousand than there are places on the team. So the budding young prep school athlete with a lot of ambition to "make the team" would rather go to the smaller school where his chances are greater.

A Story of Robespierre

The story is told of Robespierre that at one time when at the height of his power a lady called upon him, beseeching him to spare her husband's life. He scornfully refused. As she turned away she happened to tread upon the paw of his pet dog. He turned upon her and asked, "Madam, have you no humanity?"

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED

Best for Liver and Bowels. Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Polysomus matter clogged in the intestines. Instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months—Adv

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Perhaps this case may be similar to yours

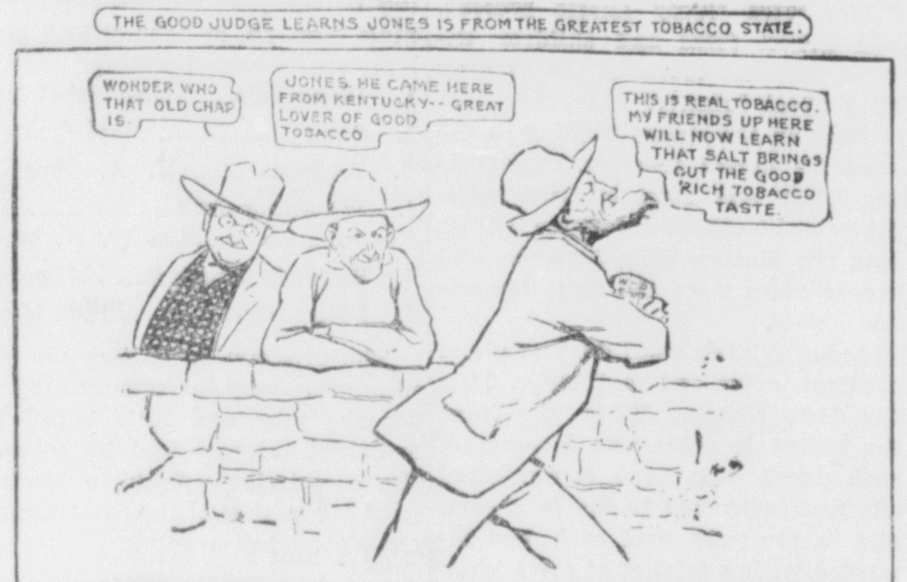

J. Wesley Tilly of Box 673, Selma, Cal., writes: "Gentlemen—It gives me much pleasure to be able to send you a testimonial, for by its reaching some sufferer your medicines will do much for him as they have for me. At the age of fourteen I was troubled with a great deal of malaria and biliousness, accompanied with the worst sort of large boils. I was persuaded by my parents, who have always been strong believers in Dr. Pierce's medicine, to try the Golden Medical Discovery. I took one bottle and the boils all disappeared, but I did not stop at one bottle; I took three and the malaria all left me and I have had no more boils to this day, thanks to the 'Golden Medical Discovery' for my relief.

"Following an operation for appendicitis two years ago I was troubled very much with constipation and I have found Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets and they have put me in a whole trouble; thank you again for the 'Pellets' and for the 'Golden Medical Discovery' which I have obtained from The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." Sent only 21 cents for this 100 pure bottle.

for over forty years has been lending its aid to just such cases as this. In our possession we have thousands of testimonials of like character.

Perhaps you are skeptical, but isn't it worth at least a trial in view of such strong testimony? Isn't it reasonable to suppose that if it has done so much for others it can do as much for you?

Your druggist will supply you in liquid or tablet form, or you can send 50 one-cent stamps for a trial box. Address Dr. T. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHEN a fellow's been brought up along-side of rich tobacco, he naturally likes to give his friends the benefit of the facts. And directly they are telling their friends about the Real Tobacco Chew. A little bit satisfies and saves coin. It's one tobacco that don't need to hide its taste under licorice and sweetening. A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR W-B CUT CHEWING TOBACCO. IT IS THE NEW "REAL TOBACCO CHEW"—CUT LONG SHRED.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

(Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.)

LUM PARK IMPROVEMENT

Plans of Tom Mansuras Prove Acceptable to the City Council Last Night

LEASE IS ORDERED DRAWN

Council at Outs with Water & Light Board, May Darken the City

The council on Monday night, all being present, were heartily in accord with the plans of Tom Mansuras for the improvement and leasing of Lum Park, and after hearing S. R. Adair of the park board and Mr. Mansuras, on motion of Aldermen Benson and Anderson, the park board was authorized to draw up a 20 year lease with Mr. Mansuras.

Mr. Mansuras' plans to improve the park are most ambitious, provided he is given the exclusive selling and entertainment privileges, which will be so provided in the lease.

During a period of three years from the date of the execution of the lease, he promises to expend at least $15,000 in the erection of buildings and making other improvements in the park and will submit a statement of expenditures.

The building plans provide for a pavilion and band stand which will first be approved by the park board. The pavilion is not to cost over $4,700 and the band stand not over $500.

Other buildings to be erected and improvements made in the three year period are bath house, chutes, soft drink establishment, merry-go-round, animal show house, canoe stations, row boats, sheds for autos and horses benches and picnic tables, electric light standards and electric lights all over the park.

Much money is to be spent in beautifying the grounds and water frontage, flower gardens, etc. Mr. Mansuras will agree to keep all buildings in first class repair and so leave them at the expiration of the lease or sooner, such becoming the property of the park board. The park board shall have the right of inspection at all times.

Chairman Morrison of the electric light committee reported on the two street lights the council had asked the water and light board to place, and that the board refused to place additional street lights until the bill against the city had been paid.

Alderman Morrison moved that the street lights be shut off for an indefinite period, such motion being seconded by Alderman Benson.

Alderman Haake and Betzold moved an amendment, that action be deferred till the next meeting, which way duly carried, as was also the original motion as amended.

A communication from Swanson & Swanson in behalf of Mrs. Caroline Nykanen on the subject of the amount of damage claimed on account of district sewer No. 3 crossing her property was read and on motion of Alderman Benson, $75 is to be paid for the right of way and a warrant to be so issued.

To the fire committee was referred the statement of Fire Chief McGinn on needed supplies.

The street committee reported verbally on the condition of the fence on the East Brainerd fill and Koerling's ball ground and on motion the boards missing were ordered replaced.

The purchasing committee is to supply an ash pan for the heating plant in the city hall.

City Clerk Mahum's report of receipts and expenditures for October was read, accepted and ordered filed.

ROAD INCREASES EMPLOYES

Northern Pacific Takes Action to Keep Pace With the Growth in Traffic on System

In view of the taking off of the Winnipeg Limited, the Sunday evening and Monday morning M. & I. trains and our own "Merry Widow," because of reported slack times, comes this news from St. Paul in the Pioneer Press which offers quite a turnabout to the prosperity row and promises more business and maybe the resumption of old train schedules. The Pioneer says:

As a result of the rapid improvement in traffic which is increasing earnings and calling for the operation of all rolling stock on hand, general increases in working forces and hours of work were made Monday by the Northern Pacific from St. Paul to Seattle.

At the Mississippi street locomotive shops, recently completed, and at the Como car shops, large numbers of employees who have been idle for several months, were put to work.

Officials expect to keep the augmented shop forces at work throughout the winter, with further additions later.

DRY BRAINERD IS A SUCCESS

So Insists the Advocates of the Saloonless City and Point to the Record for Proof

LAW IN EFFECT SIX MONTHS

Arrests Have Been Reduced Materially During the First Six Months of Dry Reign

The Dispatch has been handed the following for publication:

With the closing of October Brainerd has been "dry" for six full calendar months and some statistics and observations relative to same are quite interesting.

The average number of arrests for this same six months' period (May to October inclusive) during the last four years was 147 of which 90 were for drunkenness. The number of arrests for the six month period this year closing October 31st, 1915, were 33 of which 20 were for drunkenness and as someone remarked the town was full of liquor when the town went "dry" and that had to be drunk up. Thus, the city has had 114 less arrests during the last six months than it has averaged in the last four years for the same period. The new city jail stands empty most of the time.

The month of October just closed showed four arrests, all for drunkenness as against 38 arrests last year 17 of which were drunks.

One saloonkeeper, now in another business, said that he wished the voters had put him out of business ten years ago. Another former saloonkeeper who has gone into business of quite a different nature said: "I'll sell booze no more even should saloons be permitted," and still another former saloonkeeper said, "It is tough on me now but we will all be better for it in ten years."

One man who now pays his bills by check for the first time in his life said: "I wish someone had beat the fact into my head forty years ago that I could do without liquor, I might have something now."

One business man who voted wet said: "I've done far more business than when the town was wet and it was increased by men who blew their money on liquor." He is now a "dry" advocate.

Still the argument is used very strongly that Brainerd needs the liquor licenses to pave its street intersections and the "dry" advocates reply that if that is the only way streets can be paved they believe the city presents a better appearance with holes in the streets instead of the kinds of holes the saloons gave the city. They also say that those who fear that the loss of saloon revenue will break the city should study the history of other cities which have been without saloons for several years and have adjusted their affairs to the conditions.

Brainerd is dry for at least eighteen months more even should be "Indian lid" be removed and the citizens of Brainerd will have an opportunity to study the effects of the regime at first hand.

PLEASED CHICAGO

Felix Borowski, Chicago Record Herald, Writes of Concert Given by Edward Clarke

Edward Clarke, bass-baritone of Chicago, is to sing at Elks hall in Brainerd Friday evening, Nov. 5, appearing under the auspices of the Brainerd Musical club. Of Mr. Clarke, Felix Borowski, noted reviewer of the Chicago Record Herald, writes:

If the triumph of an artistic enterprise stands in any ratio to the quantity of enthusiasm bestowed upon it by the public, the recital which was given by Edward Clarke, baritone, and Earl Blair, pianist, at the Fine Arts theatre, was triumphal, indeed. The satisfaction which must have been enjoyed by these gentlemen resulted not only from the considerable size of the audience which occupied the house—a well-filled house is most complimentary to those who offer their wares to it—but from the unanimity and fervor of applause with which those offering were hailed.

Mr. Clarke sang much and sang it well. His voice is of uncommon sonority. But that he could accomplish charming things in tenderer moods Mr. Clarke made clear in the singing of such pieces as Grieg's "Ein Schwan," Massenet's "Oh, Si Les Fleurs Avaient Des Yeux," and in a song not upon the program—which was apparently entitled, "Let Miss Lindy Pass."

GOVERNMENT MUST SHOW CAUSE FOR CLOSING BRAINERD BREWERY

Judge Page Morris of Federal Court Signs Order. Arguments Will be Heard When Hibbing and Chisholm Indian Treaty Liquor Lid Cases are Taken Up

Minneapolis, Nov. 1.—Plans were made today to extend the scope of the hearing on the application of the Indian lid in Northern Minnesota when Judge Page Morris of the federal court hears arguments Nov. 8. Following the signing of a temporary restraining order Saturday night, Judge Morris today signed an additional order to show cause in an application for a temporary injunction brought by the Brainerd Brewing company.

The question of the boundaries fixed by the treaty is the main one to be settled in the actions brought by Senator John A. Healy, the Mesaba Wholesale Liquor Dealers' association and the saloon keepers of Hibbing and Chisholm.

The chief contention is that the range towns are outside of the limits of the territory designated in the Indian territory. In those cases there was a restraining order as well as an order to show cause.

In the Brainerd case it is contended that beer cannot be classed as an ardent spirit; that it was unknown at the time of making the treaty, and that the Indian agents have no right to prohibit its sale anywhere in the so-called Indian territory. The Brainerd Brewery was closed one month ago, so a restraining order was not necessary. The attorneys in the Brainerd case also insist that the territory can no longer be classed as Indian country, as indicated by the presence of 400,000 whites against 7,000 Indians.

FOR 60 YEARS BOILERMAKER

And for 38 Years a Foreman in Boiler Shops Was Proud Record of Harry Edwards

PASSED AWAY MONDAY NIGHT

Dearly Loved in the Northern Pacific Railway Shops Where he Was Foreman 30 Years

Sixty years a boilermaker and for thirty-eight years a foreman of a boiler shop was the record of Harry Edwards, who died of heart disease at 10:30 o'clock Monday evening at his home 611 North Ninth street. He had been sick some months, retiring from active work the past year.

Mr. Edwards was about 70 years old. He was born in St. Ives, Cornwall, England and was apprenticed when ten years old. He came to America when he was 23 years old and was married in Illinois in 1875 to Miss Mary J. Wheatley. They came to Brainerd in 1884. She preceded him to her reward in 1902.

These children survive: Mrs. Arthur Wheatley, Kingston, Ontario; Mrs. J. H. Speer, Montreal; Mrs. Guy Warren, Duluth; Mrs. Samuel Hawkins, Brainerd.

Before coming to Brainerd Mr. Edwards worked for many eastern roads and was employed near Galveston, Texas, for eight or nine years just prior to coming to Brainerd. In Brainerd he was foreman of the boiler shops of the Northern Pacific railway company the past 30 years.

One of his mementoes which he prized highly was a blackthorn stick given him by Jack Brown. Mr. Edwards was of a cheerful, sunny disposition and dearly loved quiet, little jokes. The whole shops knew him and prized him as one of its best workmen.

Little children dearly loved him and his own grand children were happiest when grandpa was there with them. The funeral arrangements have not been decided upon until all relatives are heard from. He will be buried in Brainerd.

FIRE DESTROYS TENEMENT HOUSE

At Least Twelve Persons Perish at Brooklyn.

EXPLOSION STARTS BLAZE

Flames Spread Rapidly and Cut Off Means of Escape, but Quick Work by Police and Firemen Results in Saving Many Lives.

New York, Nov. 2.—Twelve persons are known to have been burned to death in a fire which destroyed the three-story tenement house at 66 North Sixth street, Brooklyn. More bodies are believed to be in the ruins.

The fire started in the lower part of the building and spread rapidly to the upper floors, cutting off means of escape. Nearly all the occupants were asleep when the blaze was discovered, but quick work by the police and firemen enabled them to rescue many.

The bodies of six adults and four children were among the first recovered. These were found clad in night garments in bedrooms and in hallways. The position of several of the dead indicated that an attempt had been made to reach places of safety when overcome by the smoke.

The fire, the police learned, started from an explosion of gas in one of the rooms of the tenement house. The building, a three-story brick structure, was occupied chiefly by foreigners.

MORE MONEY FOR MILITIA

Congress Will Be Asked to Double the Allowance.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Congress will be asked, it was learned, to appropriate $10,000,000 this year for the organized militia of the country, or just about double the average amount asked by the war department for this purpose during the last few years.

The money will go into equipment for the guardsmen, particularly for the special service corps like the artillery, signal corps, aviation engineers and the like, it is understood.

The bill providing for the organization of the continental army will distribute this force throughout the country, according to population, under present plans.

Details of the scheme will be worked out by the two houses of congress with the aid of the war college staff and other army officers. It is understood the war college already has prepared complete plans.

SLEUTHS GUARD MRS. GALT

President's Fiancee, Accompanied by His Niece, Go to New York.

New York, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Norman Galt, bride-elect of President Wilson, arrived here from Washington, accompanied by Miss Helen Woodrow Bones.

They took rooms at a Fifth avenue hotel and will remain here over Thursday, when the president comes to speak at the fiftieth anniversary dinner of the Manhattan club. Meanwhile Mrs. Galt expects to do some shopping.

The bride-elect and her friend were escorted from Washington by a secret service man.

CAPPER DENOUNCES DEFENSE PROGRAM

Bewails "This Wild Hysteria for Preparedness."

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 2.—Governor Arthur Capper of Kansas, speaking before the Kansas Current Topics club on the proposed military and navy program of the United States, asserted that "in this wild hysteria for preparedness the West is keeping its head, but the nation as a whole has lost its balance for the moment."

"War preparedness will cause the South American republics to be turned into armed camps, which will result in a coalition against the dread and hated United States, which will bring about a conflagration such as we now are seeing as a result of this policy in Europe."

The governor said that in his judgment the United States never was safer from foreign invasion than at present, when "the nations of the world have all the war they want and when they realize they have made a fearful mistake."

"The men who are purposely, deliberately and systematically promoting war hysteria in the United States for the fat contracts it will bring them know they must strike now," he said. "They know if they give the American people time to think they will never commit themselves to the policy of militarism. If they succeed nothing is surer than that we shall be involved in a bloody war sooner or later."

ARIZONA LABOR LAW INVALID

Highest Court Holds Legislation Unconstitutional.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Arizona anti-alien labor law was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. The supreme court's decision affirms the decision of a special circuit court, which also held the law unconstitutional. Much attention was attracted to the case because several foreign governments protested against the law, and because of its similarity to the land legislation in California, which restricts the ownership of real estate by Japanese.

The Arizona law was enacted by the initiative vote of the people of Arizona and made it unlawful for any employer of more than five persons to employ less than 80 per cent qualified electors or citizens of the United States.

WILL WED AT GALT HOME

President and Fiancee to Be Married "Near Close of December."

Washington, Nov. 2.—It was announced formally at the White House that the marriage of President Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt will take place "near the close of December," and that it will be private, at Mrs. Galt's home here.

"Plans are for a simple ceremony at Mrs. Galt's residence. No invitations will be issued, and it is expected that the only guests will be the members of the two families," said a statement issued by Secretary Tamm.

ENDS LIFE BY SHOOTING

Prominent St. Louis Editor Found Dead in Home.

St. Louis, Nov. 2.—Edward L. Preterious, publisher of the St. Louis Times, has committed suicide.

Mr. Preterious, who was president of the German-American Press association, which publishes both the Times and the Westliche Post, was found dead in the bathroom of his home. He had shot himself.

Mrs. Preterious said her husband apparently had been in good spirits and that she could give no reason for his deed except perhaps his lack of health.

JEWS STARVING IN RUSSIA

One Million and a Half Reported as Perishing.

London, Nov. 2.—At a meeting here in behalf of the fund for the relief of Jewish victims of the war in Russia it was announced that there were 1,500,000 Jews starving in Russia.

Leopold de Rothschild presided and Lord Swaythling, Chief Rabbi Hertz, Israel Zangwill and other prominent Jews were present.

American Soldier Wounded.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Corporal Jones, Company G, Seventh Infantry, was shot through both thighs by a Carranza soldier, who leaped from his trench at Agua Prieta, shouting: "Viva Carranza" and fired six shots at Jones, who was on patrol near the boundary in the rear of the customs house. The American soldier is not seriously wounded.

LITTLE INTEREST IN THE ELECTIONS

Only Local Issues Settled at Polls This Fall.

NO FORECAST OF SENTIMENT

Of Course Both Parties Will Claim That the Outcome Indicates Certain Success—Administration Interested in Fight For New Constitution in New York as Test of Root's Strength.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 2.—[Special.]—Little interest has been aroused in Washington over the elections this fall. Occasionally a politician gives his views, but returning congressmen show no great concern as to whether the various states go one way or another. Of course Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts has many friends, who hope to see him win the governorship of his state. Then there are others who want Augustus O. Stanley to become governor of Kentucky. But these wishes are more personal than political.

As to results forecasting the outcome next year, it is assured that both sides will figure out prospective success. Yet the elections will be of little political significance because of local conditions. If McCall should be defeated in Massachusetts it would not mean that the state has gone over to the Democratic party, but the conditions prevailing there would account for the result. If Stanley should lose Kentucky it would be on account of the liquor question.

New York Constitution.

It is strange that the Democratic administration is much interested in the result relating to the new constitution in New York. By the vote for and against the adoption of that constitution they expect to gauge the popularity of Elihu Root. They figure that the defeat of the constitution will put Root out of the running. It also is strange that the administration has any fear of Root, but it is a fact that the friends of President Wilson think that, next to Hughes, Root is the most formidable candidate the Republicans can name.

Not Holding the Bag.

When Secretary Daniels went ahead with his naval program and made plans to recommend large increases quite a number of persons who thought they knew the mind of the president wagged their heads and said that "Josephus" will be left to hold the bag; his large estimates will be turned down by the president, and the secretary will bear the blame for not providing a navy." But Josephus has the laugh on all of the prophets, for his program has the approval of the president. President Wilson and other administration officials believe the country wants a big navy.

Critics of the Canal.

When America gets a new toy it wants to play with it. That is why impatience is shown because the canal is closed with slides. The American people wanted a big canal, the biggest thing going, and they got it—nearly. The people who forced the canal upon this country did not stop to consider that it might become a white elephant on our hands; that it would cost millions upon millions to protect it, and in time of war it would become a source of weakness rather than of strength. They wanted it, and congress gave it to them. If it appears rather hard to break down the barrier which nature erected for our protection they should not be disappointed, nor should the army engineers, who are doing the best they can, be criticised.

Agitating Tom Marshall.

Just who it is that continues the agitation against Tom Marshall for re-nomination no one can definitely say, but it is certain that the Indiana man is going to be pushed aside if certain politicians can accomplish their desires. The little innuendoes, press paragraphs and suggestions all go to show that many of Wilson's friends do not want Marshall on the presidential ticket next year.

May Retire Justice Lamar.

It is expected that provision will be made by legislation for the retirement of Justice Lamar as was done in the case of Justice Moody, who became incapacitated for duties on the supreme bench. Justice Lamar had a stroke of paralysis, and the talk among judges and lawyers is that he will never be able to resume the work of a supreme court justice. Rather than have the court left with eight members it is probable that congress will retire Lamar. There are so many decisions by a divided court that it is thought best to have nine members rather than to have decisions of lower courts affirmed by an evenly divided court as has sometimes happened.

Poetry and Detective Stories.

Who is it that invents all these stories about the president? One of them not long ago said that the president sat before a log fire evenings reading poetry and detective stories to Mrs. Galt and members of his household. Of course there is no denial of such tales. The White House force would be kept too busy if it attempted to deny all the stories that have been put in circulation, especially since the engagement of the president was announced.

"MILLIONAIRE KID" EARNs HIS LIVING

Learns the Value of Dollar by Working For It.

HUNGRY, HE SLEPT IN PARK

Donald Murphy, Son of Multimillionaire Lumberman, Relates His Experiences. For Long Time Lived on One Meal a Day Which Cost Between Fifteen and Twenty Cents.

Don Murphy has learned the value of a dollar. He is the son of Albert M. Murphy, the multimillionaire lumberman of Green Bay, Wis. Until now his father's purse always has been open to the prodigal son.

But the purse strings have been drawn, and the youth has been advised to "learn the value of a dollar."

Don has sought a royal road to knowledge in vain. He joined the navy and was hazed because his father was rich. His cousin gave him a job riding horses at the stockyards. One threw him on his head.

The story road of hard knocks is the one the young man finally had to take to learn his lesson.

His own story in the Chicago Herald is as follows:

"I was born with a silver spoon in my mouth, but it did not stay there."

"In January my father told me to go and make my own living and learn the value of a dollar."

Soon Loses His Job.

"Well, I thought that would be easy, so I went to Helena, Ark., where I worked for a lumber company for five months. They laid me off on the 13th of August, as there was not enough work. Not finding any position down there, I started for Chicago."

"I arrived here on the 15th of August and started to look for work on the same day, but could not find anything."

"I did not have a cent and did not know where I was going to sleep. I happened to meet a friend who was kind enough to give me a room and a little money with which to get something to eat."

"I would eat only one meal a day, as I wished to learn the pains of hunger, so in case I had to I would be in trim to meet that funny feeling—and, let me say that one meal a day is no seven course dinner. When this had gone on for a few weeks I began to realize that a dollar looked a lot bigger to me than it ever had before."

"My one meal would cost me between 15 and 20 cents. Then, if I got hungry I would go into a saloon, first by the front door, and get a lunch, then go out and rush in the back door, as if I had not been in the place before, and eat some more. This went on for a few days until I was caught by a saloon bouncer, who threatened to give me a licking. Rather than argue the matter I left in a hurry. He looked like Jess Willard to me. I told him he would have to run some if he wished to whip me."

Sleeps in Station.

"One Saturday morning I awoke to the fact that I did not have a cent and was told that I would have to get out of my room if I could not pay the bill, so I left my suit case for security and started out again to look for work."

"That night I went to the North Western station and slept until 3 a. m. A policeman awoke me and told me to get out or he would run me in, so I went over to the Union station and slept until 7 o'clock."

"As there was nothing else to do Sunday, I went down to Grant park to sit and think if I were only home what a nice meal I would be having. But no such luck! While I was sitting there a fellow who looked every inch a hobo asked me if I could give him a little money. When I told him I was just as much down and out as he was I surprised him. He said I was well dressed and surely must have some money. I told him if a person was well dressed that was no sign he had money."

"Sunday night came, and I started to sleep in the park, but a policeman had to interrupt me, so I went back to the Union station. In the morning I began to feel faint, but could not see any thing to eat coming my way."

"As I happened to be passing a room in a building where I was looking for work I spied an old friend, but would not tell him my troubles. He asked me out to dinner that night. I ordered everything from soup to nuts."

"Now, if this experience is not enough to teach one the value of a dollar I don't know what is."

"Above all, I have learned three things—first, mind your parents; second, don't think because your father has money you don't have to work; third, above all, be honest."

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At The "Best" Theatre

Tonight will be presented "The Man Trail," an Essanay six-act photoplay adapted from the recently published novel by Henry Oyen, the author. It is a red-blooded drama of life in the raw. It deals with the rough and rugged characters of the logging camp, men of primitive passions and the cave-man method of obtaining their desires and disposing of an enemy.

Nothing in the world is so thrilling as a man hunt, and this is the story of man hunting down man to kill; a relentless, pitiless stalking of the quarry and a battle to the death.

When two strong men stand face to face, determined that one or the other must die; men battling with guns for leadership and the love of a woman—there is a scene that grips the hearts of all spectators and holds them with a breathless interest. The photoplay is full of such great climaxes and thrilling action.

Don't miss this chance of seeing this marvelous picture which is conceded to be better than "The Spoilers."

At the Grand

Mary Pickford, the idol of the screen, who recently announced her determination to remain with the Famous Players Film Co., despite numerous and flattering offers from other feature concerns, is presented by that company in the charming romantic drama, "Mistress Nell," by George C. Hazelton, Jr., which has so many years enthralled audiences throughout the country as a stage success, and which is now the current feature on the Paramount program at the Grand.

"Mistress Nell" is considered the greatest heroine of historic and romantic drama, and as personified by Mary Pickford is a character of delightful femininity combined with the dramatic force inherent in all the work of this gifted star.

The five-part feature was well received last night and should draw a tremendous crowd tonight. The orchestra may be heard every night at the Grand.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.
